

Several projects were under completion during 2014. Going forward, these projects will start to report CO₂e and primary energy savings from the first quarter of 2015. A total of 11 projects are expected to report CO₂e and primary energy savings in 2015 (Banca Transilvania will report on three underlying projects).